MARCH 2013

PROKART ENDURANCE SERIES - AUSTRALIA

Team KnK Australia take out First place in their KnK Dominator TE at the First National Round at Coffs Harbour of The Australian 2013 Track Safety International Australia Prokart Endurance Championships

Prokart Endurance Racing:

As reported in our February 2013 newsletter, KnK Australia is gearing up for the upcoming season of the Prokart Endurance Series.

Glenn Firth and Ian McMaha's of team MF Tech won the 2012 Queensland ProKart Endurance Championship series in their KnK Dominator TE. This year they have formed a new team with Ian McMaha, Glenn Firth and Scott Pearce under Team KnK Australia.

Guy Tingey, Principal, Team KnK Australia expects that there will be almost 12 teams racing KnK Dominator TE karts in Australian Prokart Endurances in 2013.

At the first round of the National Prokart Championship over the weekend of March 2nd and 3rd, 2013, kart #5 of Team KnK Australia driven by Ian McMaha, Glen Firth and Scott Pearce won both the 6-hour endurance races.

To read the complete race report and more on this fascinating form of kart racing where karts fitted with two engines called Prokarts are raced, follow the link to the Australian newsletter "PROKART".
